The Professionals Abroad DLC packs our very first set of six missions into the Door Kickers experience. These missions were originally designed by the Ukrainian studio Nimbus Game Studios for professional and military training scenarios. These missions can be played alone or in 2-player coop with up to 4 player support. We tried to keep it consistent to provide the best possible experience for Abroad fans.We also changed several aspects of the core game: the new third level will make the raid even more of a "No pressure" experience we added an additional spawn point to make the missions even more approachable and the playing experience accessible to all levels of players we increased the difference between Insurgents and SWAT operatives we changed the SWAT operatives spawn location from the main level to the middle of the map we added a new Supply Cache to complete the mission objectives … And so much more! Reviews "It's the perfect mix of 2D platforming, building destruction, and tactical action." 8/10 – Game Informer About This Game When Uncle Sam calls, Nowhere City SWAT answers! Deployed overseas to combat a new terrorist threat directly at the source, our heroes find themselves face to face with a deadly Insurgent network as well as the old familiar enemies. Taking a page straight out of Door Kickers 2's playbook, the Insurgents come equipped with dependable AKs and old but deadly Armor Piercing Snipers rifles, suicide vests and great numbers of misguided recruits. The DLC includes 12 fresh and challenging missions that take Action Squad level design to the max and go further. Jump out of helicopters, blow up walls and find new ways to navigate the environment - but think fast, time is of the essence. Our Story 2D platforming with emphasis on platforming, vehicle destruction, and tactical action, Far Cry 5: New Dawn delivers on all those fronts with spectacular polish. How about flowers? It's like there are no rules anymore. There's no question: The Spotted Pig is the greatest steak in New York City. It's astounding that a chef who didn't have a single Michelin star should be so good at cooking steak that even U.K. critics think the food is special. "I have eaten the best steak I have ever eaten at The Spotted Pig in New York—and it was cheap!" wrote the London Times in 2013. Want a glass of wine that's so good it'll send a person drinking it to sleep? It's available at the Le Sautoir d'Oie.
