You will play as Nigel, a young man who left home to seek his fortune. But bad luck strikes during a storm and he must survive for a very long time with no food and little water. The only thing he has on his side is his ingenious skill as a beekeeper! The game features a vast variety of bees, plenty of honeycomb, beeswax, honey and many other bee-related items. You can buy and sell these items, collect them as you search the lands and interact with the dynamic bee population. The game also features a social aspect as each bee can share its opinion of your character, their honey and eggs. Traverse diverse landscapes as you learn what is necessary to keep bees: beeswax, honeycomb, food and much more... You'll get a full story of approximately 10 hours, following a wide number of quests, collecting various stuff to sell, discovering a number of items and bee varieties, interacting with the bee population, taking part in bee-related challenges and discovering hidden things around the lands. Instructions Once downloaded, your initial game save will be placed in the following location: C:\Users\username\Documents\Beekeeping Demo If you are going to play more than once, you'll want to be able to start at any point in the game from this location. Using your save file, you can run through the game. You will start at level 1, and experience the tutorial along with your first quests. You will not start in the wild unless you have forgotten your save. Your first chance to start in the wild will be after you have completed the tutorial. In order to load your save from a different device, you will need to copy all of the savedata directories in the following locations: C:\Users\username\Documents\Beekeeping Demo\savedata How To Mod The game will install a "mods" directory for you. Once the game is installed you can drag the contents of "mods" into "C:\Users\username\Documents\Beekeeping Demo\savedata". There is currently a limit of 9 mods per user. You can check how many mods you have installed, and remove them all if you have exceeded the limit. Demo Questions Why didn't I notice the missing bees? The answer is simple. You haven't been paying attention. The bees that get cut off and fly away are not really missing. They fly off in a different direction and c9d1549cdd

What's new:

Was Posted on 12 July 2006 The bonus episode of Shining Song Starnova was recorded at the end of June 2006 in Edinburgh. This and the girls episode will be uploaded on the website very soon. Watcht hte ladies of Shining Song hittin' the stage of the closing concert! They'll be back before your eggs are cooked. Cut to live in Edinburgh... for some reason. "How do you like it?". CD-U sounds pretty good on a little box... Bake Jam Elpis (The lady who likes to be the centre of attention) Fans, girls who used to sing back in the day about Queen, Anita Heebie, Vogues, etc... Mimos-un and the Cherry Boys The group that never had a name are now known as Mimos-un Cut to live in Gloucester... But not for long. The Shocking incident in Glasgow Kevin was really good, despite the government agent in charge of the show. The level of preparedness on the government's part is shocking. And what a coincidence that both the mole and Kevin's agent are from Westminster. QEDk were nice enough to give me a copy of the tape in advance. And it was great. If you haven't heard this tape, be sure to check the site when it's available. The show was recorded on one day. A few days before the show, a couple of girls called at my house and told me to get ready to go. And before you know it, we were in Grand Central in Glasgow - no time was wasted. To be honest, I didn't think I'd be able to go on stage. I still didn't know whether I'd be allowed to. To my surprise, I was actually allowed to sing a song! Mimos-un opened the show. Elpis was late again, again. And of course, the man who made it through the incident on Saturday was her. And despite the security agents taking her a few feet away, her first song was "Boulder Dam National Park". This is the last time I heard Greenfield cover the song. I don't know how much of the Bias song was used in the show. It sounded very professional to me. This song got an enthusiastic reaction from the crowd. Mimos-un was very nervous

The game was created by the Glasgow developers of Gimme Shelter, and adapted by co-developer Wizards of the Coast. This is a post-apocalyptic post-millennium setting, where the future has crashed into the present, and monsters are always lurking, only to be driven away by humanity's courage and skill. Hobo Alley is one of five possible locations that the player can visit during the course of the game. Each location is a 4x4 grid of short streets, which lead to ten unique buildings that are the minimum size for the spaces to be valid. The player can also explore the rest of the city, but only if they beat the story. Primary location The primary location is Hobo Alley. This location is found within the heart of the city. Hobo Alley is a 4x4 grid of short streets, which lead to ten unique buildings. Tower Overlook Located on the top of a building overlooking the city, this location can also be upgraded to the super tower. This location can be accessed from the east end of Hobo Alley. Super Tower The super tower is the base of operations for the derelict towers. The super tower stands at least 150' tall, and can be accessed from the south end of Hobo Alley. Scavenger's Hall The scavenger's hall is located in an abandoned warehouse. This location can be accessed from the west end of Hobo Alley, along with the north side of the alley. This section of Hobo Alley is a 4x4 grid with short streets that lead to ten unique buildings. Intersection of Hobo Alley The north and south end of Hobo Alley are two full squares (8x8) of the city. This location can be accessed from the east end of Hobo Alley. Buildings City buildings are a vital part of the game. The most notable of these buildings are the city center, the pharmacy, and the post office. Post Office The post office is a vital part of the game. The post office is a small building located at the north end of Hobo Alley. This building can serve as a relay point for letters, packages, and treasure. Pharmacy The pharmacy is a small building located at the south end of Hobo Alley. This building can serve as a relay point for potions, scrolls, and health amulets. (Ab)
