Hello, I am a frequent user of Kaspersky and know that the so-called trial version allows only 5 use and 5 computer functions for a limited time. Unfortunately I did not understand that. I was having issues with the firewall. I activated the Kaspersky Antivirus and downloaded it. This is a complete package, so the trial version was already activated. Now my problem is that the firewall is continuously active. I searched this forum and found this topic: By the way I am using Kaspersky K-layer on XP SP3. Can somebody help me? Thanks! Do you need to activate the Kaspersky trial or do you have a license? If you have a license you can install the trial and it will convert to a license after 5 days, if you don't have a license, you need to enter into the Kaspersky Live Technical Support. I hope it helps, Cheers I want to activate the Kaspersky trial to use the full version. I downloaded the Kaspersky tool and on the activation screen I was able to activate the full version and continue. The license file is in my computer and the Kaspersky activation screen shows the message : 'Trial version is already activated' and I cannot activate the full version. Can you give me a step by step guide to activate the full version? I did not see a place to download the license. I want to activate the Kaspersky trial to use the full version. I downloaded the Kaspersky tool and on the activation screen I was able to activate the full version and continue. The license file is in my computer and the Kaspersky activation
