One of the things we have noticed is that when someone emails one of our divisions, the entire conversation shows up in our Outlook inbox. How do we keep the conversation from appearing all in one place (like we have discussed in the past)? Thanks! A: It's a conversation thread, I think. When you create a new thread in MS Exchange it remembers that you were part of the original conversation so it shows up in your inbox. If you want to drop out of the conversation, then you can reply to all or reply to one of the people in the thread, thereby dropping yourself out of the conversation. Q: How do I add another row to an existing table with this code? I have an assignment for which I have to replace all csv's in the directory with csv files in the current directory, and I can't figure out how to add another row to the table that already has the csv's in it. I need to create a new row that is supposed to hold a different path of a different csv file. for file in os.listdir(directory): if file.endswith(".csv"): with open(file) as csvfile: data = csv.reader(csvfile, delimiter = ",") for row in data: zip_code = (row[1].split(",")[0]) d0c515b9f4

I live with my gf and my two kids. She gets from my boss about 100 $/mo for help with the kids and as a result has a stable income. She knows I don't have a steady job and sometimes doesn't get the full amount. I support her if she doesn't get much and we both buy food and pay bills etc. Now that we have moved to a different country we have some problems with the lack of jobs, paying for papers, getting a new gdpr record and getting legal aid. My gf needs my help when it comes to the cost for helping the kids, paying bills, buying food etc. I told her I can make some extra money and she can buy something nice with it. Should I ask my boss or is it considered normal for me to help her and to give her money for having a stable income. Should I ask her if she would like me to help her or should I buy her things with the money and she would return it later? Should I do this only if I see that she needs something special and that I have the money? I'm not looking to be dishonest or cheat her I want to be a good husband and a good man in this situation. And I want to be honest. I don't want to be a debt collector either. A: My girlfriend often borrows money from me for unforeseen expenses. I don't think it is weird. It is absolutely okay to say, "I have some money I'd like to give you and give you an allowance for unexpected expenses" For serious money, I'd probably just give
