Kiermaier on Thursday was named an AL All-Star reserve, beating out Angels outfielder Mike Trout, who was the early favorite. Trout will be the only player under 25 on an AL All-Star roster since Toronto's Vernon Wells was a member of the 2011 AL team. "It feels great to get this honor," Kiermaier said. "It's the best way to end the season, definitely." The announcement comes as the Rays approach the end of the regular season with a 74-44 record. The team holds the best record in baseball and is in position to secure the AL's wild card. Kiermaier, who signed with the Rays last August as a free agent, has been one of the best offensive players in baseball this season, winning the AL's top slugger and RBI honors. He has made the AL All-Star team four times in his career. Kiermaier leads the AL with a .303 batting average, winning the batting title over Trout, who has a .310 average. But Kiermaier has hit safely in 72 of 74 games and has scored 72 runs. "I've been really fortunate and blessed to have an opportunity to play all the way through April and June and in September. That's the best part about baseball," he said. "I've got to really
