if you are looking for movie theater seating, you will probably want to opt for a more immersive experience. some theaters have a screen that sits at floor level, creating a 3d experience. others, such as omnimax, have installed curved screens that surround the entire theater. you will definitely want to go to a theater that offers dolby atmos. i was hoping for something more from this year-long fox searchlight and depp experiment than a few nice cameos. i expected a movie that would keep depp and his companion charlotte gainsbourg on screen together for the duration. sadly, that was not the case. the movie began with an idea in which depp and gainsbourg find the perfect beach for a romantic getaway. depp, who once made over 400 movies in his life, is a man used to being the star. but in this movie, depp is relegated to the role of the supporting character, while gainsbourg and her actress friend, thandie newton, command the screen. they had better come up with a new adjective for their new style of filmmaking. rather than being an actor-driven movie that just happens to star famous people, the cast this time around seems to be a celebs wanna-be team. the movie has a problem, and the solutions for each problem are hit or miss. the movie is also lacking in the development of gainsbourg and newton. they are portrayed as a couple of over-the-top 30-something new yorkers, when the real-life gainsbourg, who is actually from the french city of toulouse, has a more grounded and realistic personality. one bit of good news: this is the shortest depp-gainsbourg movie since the actor was doing simultaneous movies with vanessa paradis. i will take what i can get! it is difficult to imagine that this was depp's only screen appearance in his life. he should have been cast as one of the three musketeers if he has not already played them in his career. after all, depp's values are as big as his ego. depp also is considered to be the best of the brat pack. his calm and collected persona comes through well in this movie. a depp-gainsbourg movie that is well done is one that you can watch with a smirk on your face. this year, fox searchlight has made a mess out of what could have been a major franchise for depp, but instead, they have made a mediocre depp movie with gainsbourg.
